money has taken the heart out of spec-ulation in securities for the time being The rate for call money held firm at per cent, all day to-day until near the close of the stock market, when there were transactions at 3 per cent, with offerings at 1% per cent. The Union Pacific reorganization commutitee to-day paid into the sub-treasury $$.500,000 in

neric transactions at 3 per cent, with offerings at 1% per cent. The Union Pacific reorganization committee to-day paid into the sub-treasury $5,800,000 in cash, the credit balance of that institution at the clearing house being $7,677,-739. It is the general belief in banking circles that call money will not yield below 3 per cent. before the end of the year, and may rule higher. The accumulation of funds in anticipation in January disbursements of dividends and interest will make further demand on the money market. Bankers deprecate the idea that there is any stringency of money in prospect in view of the fact that the government will redeem the currency sixes to the amount of over $20,000,000 on December 24 before the next installment is due on the Union Pacific payment. Rates for time money for the shorter periods were marked up to-day as well as those for call money, the quotations being 3½42 per cent, for sixty and ninety days. Although there is still some movement of currency to points in the south and west, the stiffening of the money rate here was reflected in a rise in the rates of domestic exchange on New York at interior points. The rates for sterling exchange also responded sharply, postications for the large credits abroad and in the alundance of money in the interior, deposits being reported to be of unprecedented volume and prices of gill-edged securities for investment at the highest level known. Both deposits and loans of New York kit high water mark the restrict and in the third water mark the regress and interes the highest parent any very strenuous demand for money. It is the opinion of Wall street that large operators about completed the taking of profits yesterday and are ready for a decline. There were some further evidences of liquidation to-day and little evidence of support outside the coniers and one or two of the specialties. The agreement to restrict the output of coal strengthened this group, especially New Jersey Central, in which the outstanding short interest was large, and it was the scramble to cover which caused feverish fluctuations in that stock over a range of nearly 5 points. Its net gain was 3% and other members of the group also shows sharp gains. Manhattan showed some recovery from yesterday's weakness on rumors of intended extension of the system. Prices of many stocks rose at one time above yesterday's closing level, but all weakened before the close. The extreme declines in a great many cases were a point or over and in some cases net losses exceeded a point. Sugar was the principal centre of depression and closed 1% lower. Selling for London account helped on the reaction. Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis losses 1% per cent.

The bond market was fairly active and was a trifle easier on the late dealings. Total sales $2,550,000.

Evening Post's London financial cablegram:
Yesterday's optimism was slightly checked at the opening of the stock markets here to-day and in the absence of public support a slight set-back in prices followed, notably in home rails. The duliness was short lived, however, and although the markets are still mainly professional, they have an excellent undertone, especially considering the period of the year.

Breadstuffs and Provisions.

CHICAGO-Some indications of the revival of the foreign demand for American wheat had a good effect on the market to-day and at the close May showed 1@11 advance. December was again pushed above the dollar mark, closing at $1 00%, an advance of 3%c. Trading in this delivery, however, was exceedingly narrow. Other markets were strong and weak by turns, but closed firm, corn and oats 1/4 higher each, while provisions showed 71/4@10c ad-about 225,000 bushels.

Atlantic port clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 380,000 bushels.
After 12 o'clock the previous prevailing lethargy gave place to a trifle more appearance of the market being still awake, and in the course of another half hour it was kicking its heels up in a lively fashion and hitting the bears hard at every jump. On the reported working at New York of 130,600 bushels of No. 2 red winter wheat for export, some who had been waiting patiently for a ing at New York of 130,600 bushels of No.2 red winter wheat for export, some who had been waiting patiently for a signal began buying, in consequence of which May was sent up to 324c and at the close it was bringing 924,6224c. Not more than 50,000 bushels December was traded in. This, with the strength of December, was sufficient to advance the price of that delivery to $1,00½, which was the closing price.

Corn acted much as it did yesterday, starting steady, then showing weakness, but finally turning strong. The early dullness was caused in part by the dry freezing weather, which was expected to create a freer country movement. Sympathy with wheat was expected to create a freer country movement. Sympathy with wheat was mainly responsible for the late strength, though the higher prices ruling west had some influence. Most of, the selling was by those who bought yesterday, May ranged from 204c to 285, 6285c. Closing 4c higher at 234,6234c.

Oats for December were weak on laudiation and May for the greater part of the day noted weak in sympathy. When wheat and corn turned firm, shorts in May tried to cover, but found some difficulty in doing so, and all the early decline was recovered. December, however, was weak to the close May ranged from 204c to 284,6224c and closed 45c higher at 225c.

There was more outside trade in provisions and the market continued to advance. Prices at the start were higher on the small hop receipts. Profit taking by scalpers caused most of the opening advance to disappear during the
